NOW HAVE A PLAN TO PREVENT A BOLT AT CHICAGO MEETING

Republican Committee Would Bind National Delegates.

IDEA ORIGINATES WITH UPHAM

Only Ten Representatives of the Press Will Be Admitted to Sessions When 24 Contests For Seats In National Convention Are Heard. Former Senator Dick Will Look After Taft's Interest and Ormsby McHarg Will Represent Roosevelt.

Chicago, June 7.—Believing the president is to be renominated, the Taft forces are taking preliminary steps to prevent a bolt of the Roosevelt forces. Moved by the many reports current that the defeated faction in the Republican national convention would bolt and nominate another ticket, Fred W. Upham, one of the delegates from Illinois, planned to introduce a resolution at the opening of the convention pledging every delegate to support the nominee and calling on the committee on credentials to deny a seat to any delegate who will not make such a pledge. The resolution, as prepared by Mr. Upham and his associates, is as follows:

The Upham Resolution.

"Resolved, as the sense of this convention, that every member of it is in honor bound to support its nominee, whoever that nominee may be, and that no man should hold a seat here who is not ready to so agree."

The plan of the Taft leaders is to let the Upham resolution go to the floor of the convention directly from the national committee. In this way it can be voted upon by the delegates without reference to the regular committee on resolutions.

The resolution is now in the hands of William B. McKinley, manager of the Taft campaign. It has received the approval of Charles F. Brooker of Connecticut, chairman of the national committee's subcommittee on rules; Senator Murray Crane of Massachusetts, Senator Bois Penrose of Pennsylvania, Joseph B. Keating of Indiana, assistant Taft manager, and Former Governor Murphy of New Jersey.

It is believed that if the Roosevelt delegates have any mind to bolt they will show it on the vote on the Upham resolution. If the resolution is passed and all factions agree to stand by the party nominee, the opinion of the Taft managers is that, while the proceedings of the convention may lose none of their bitterness, all sides can proceed with the assurance that, no matter what happens, there will be no bolt as a spectacular denoument.

All eyes were on the Republican national committee. Many believed that the deliberations would result in a test vote by which the exact strength in the committee of the warring Taft and Roosevelt forces could be known. The only test vote of any kind was on the resolution to admit newspaper correspondents to the proceedings of the committee.

Ex-President Roosevelt had declared that the committee was to cheat him in deciding the contests and he demanded the widest publicity of all the proceedings of the committee. President Taft, accepting his challenge, requested Colonel Harry S. New, chairman of the subcommittee on arrangements, to see to it that all newspaper correspondents were admitted to the meetings of the committee.

Colonel New discussed President Taft's request with his brothers of the committee, and as a result, at the meeting Committeeman Ernest H. Hart of Council Bluffs, Ia., in offering a resolution calling for the Expert Says Ohio Loses $1,000,000 Yearly By Bad Method.

Columbus, O., June 7. — Speaking before the Ohio Butter, Eggs and Poultry Producers and Shippers' association, in session here, H. C. Pierce of the federal department of agriculture said: "When you buy case count you place a bonus on every rotten egg in the community."

Dr. Pierce was only one of several asked to address the gathering, and the whole range of poultry production and selling was gone over. As a result, with the concurrence of the state dairy and food commissioner's office and the State university, it was decided to begin a comprehensive campaign of education among the farmers looking to a more careful production and marketing of eggs.

It also was decided that members would begin buying eggs loss off; that is, they will not buy eggs that are not fresh, and to determine their condition will candle all eggs before accepting them.

According to Dr. Pierce the egg and poultry business of Ohio aggregates $16,000,000 a year. The business the country over suffers a greater per cent loss than any other known. He declared that in the United States $70,000 000 was lost annually in bad poultry and $45,000,000 in bad eggs. Ohio's share of the loss is considerably over $1,000,000 a year in eggs.

Cleveland, O., June 7.—William L. Bernard, Columbus, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by Judge Neff on a charge of embezzling $540 from the Cleveland Knitting Mills company.

After his arrest Bernard asked the judge to have his skull operated upon to cure his mania for gambling. Neff told Bernard he might gamble on his sentence.

"The limit is seven years," Neff told him. "What do you gamble you'll get?"

"Two years," said Bernard.

"Missed your guess," said Neff; "it's three."

Newberry's Daughter Cancels Engagement to British Soldier.

Detroit, June 7.—Detroit's "four hundred" were given a severe shock when invitations to the wedding of Miss Carol Newberry, daughter of T. H. Newberry, former secretary of the navy, and Captain W. H. Alleyne, of the Queen's Own regiment, stationed at the Bermudas, were recalled by the parents of the bride-to-be. The date for the wedding had been set for June 18.

It is said by intimate friends of Miss Newberry that Captain Alleyne released her from the engagement when he ascertained that her heart belonged to another. The name of Frank Brooks, to whom Miss Newberry was formerly engaged, was mentioned in this connection.

RELEASED from Atlanta penitentiary last February by order of President Taft, to whom it was represented that he was in a dying condition, Charles W. Morse, who had served part of his sentence for violation of the banking laws, spent several months in Europe and recently returned to this country. He was apparently in the best of health and visited Wall street soon after he arrived in New York. It is expected that he will be heard from again in the financial world in which he made so spectacular a figure in the time of his promotion of steamboat companies and his mergers of New York banks. Mrs. Morse, who worked so unremittingly to gain his release, accompanied him abroad and returned with him. It was recently asserted that Morse's attorneys received $100,000 for effecting his release.

With that, according to their story Brydle started toward Sharp and the carpenter retorted, "I'll show you!"

The mayor bound Sharp over to the grand jury on a charge of first degree murder and he was hurried to the county jail at Jefferson, as the local police feared a demonstration.

After Deciding Upon Manner of Submitting Their Work to Public, Delegates Decide to Take Recess Until Aug. 26—Newspapers Must Be of Opposite Politics, Must Print Proposals at Half Regular Legal Rate, and Distribute Pamphlets Free.

Columbus, O., June 7. — Finishing touches to Ohio's new constitution were made at a brief session of the convention this morning, after which the delegates voted to take a recess until Aug. 26. There is provision for a called special session by petition of 10 members during the long recess.

Determination to adopt this policy was reached after the convention had adopted an address to the voters of the state and a report of the committee on submission, providing for newspaper publicity.

The committee put through its proposition, 81 to 2, for five weeks advertising in two newspapers of opposite politics at half the rate, after a practical understanding was reached that nothing should be printed but a copy of the official ballot with an explanation of how to vote. Newspapers are to distribute free "dodgers" containing a copy of the explanation of each proposal and a copy of the proposal itself.

Columbus, O., June 7.—Charged with opening a letter addressed to a guest in a Columbus hotel, Albert N. Bird, a Steubenville mail carrier, was indicted by the federal grand jury here. W. F. ALSO DISTRIBUTE DODGERS

After Deciding Upon Manner of Submitting Their Work to Public, Delegates Decide to Take Recess Until Aug. 26—Newspapers Must Be of Opposite Politics, Must Print Proposals at Half Regular Legal Rate, and Distribute Pamphlets Free.

Columbus, O., June 7. — Finishing touches to Ohio's new constitution were made at a brief session of the convention this morning, after which the delegates voted to take a recess until Aug. 26. There is provision for a called special session by petition of 10 members during the long recess.

Determination to adopt this policy was reached after the convention had adopted an address to the voters of the state and a report of the committee on submission, providing for newspaper publicity.

The committee put through its proposition, 81 to 2, for five weeks advertising in two newspapers of opposite politics at half the rate, after a practical understanding was reached that nothing should be printed but a copy of the official ballot with an explanation of how to vote. Newspapers are to distribute free "dodgers" containing a copy of the explanation of each proposal and a copy of the proposal itself.

IMPERIAL DEGREE STAFF IS PRAISED

Grand Officers of Ohio Odd Fellows Honor Local Staff With Words of Highest Commendation.

WANT STAFF TO WIN PRIZE

Noted Staff Placing Washington "On the Map" More and More, and Citizens Are Beginning to Realize Importance of "Getting Behind" the Staff and Assist in Winning Highest Honors in Odd Fellow World.

The annual reports of the Grand Master and other officials to the Grand Lodge of Ohio, Odd Fellows, which meets in Hamilton, Ohio, on Sunday, June 18th, 1912, is published and it contains the following complimentary report of the work of the celebrated Imperial Degree Staff of Temple Lodge No. 227, of this city, now known all over the country as the best drilled Fraternal Degree staff in the jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand lodge of this great order. Grand Master A. C. Bachtell says:

"On Dec. 7, 1911, assisted by Grand Secretary C. H. Lyman, I dedicated the splendid Temple of Temple Lodge, No. 227, of Washington C. H., Ohio. This was a fine affair, and these brothers deserve the praise that they received on this occasion, for this splendid temple that they have added to the many that now are owned by lodges all over this state. This is one of the best lodges in this state and the Imperial Degree staff of this lodge not only took third prize at Indianapolis, but will go to Winnepeg this year to compete again for the prize. It is my sincere wish that they will bring back first prize this time."

Grand Secretary C. H. Lyman, one of the best posted fraternal men in the United States on Degree work, pays the boys of Temple lodge this high complement:

"While attending the Sovereign Grand lodge at Indianapolis, during September, 1911, it was our good fortune to witness the conferring of the First Degree by the celebrated Imperial Degree Staff of Temple lodge, No. 227, of Washington C. H., Fayette county, and we will say that we were proud of its exemplification of this beautiful degree. This Degree Staff was one of the competitors in the prize drill, and we regret that the judges only awarded it the third prize. The guards of this staff marched like regular soldiers, and they made the marches and countermarches with military precision. It has not been my pleasure to witness all of the Degree staffs exemplify this degree, but Bro. Chaffin, who takes the leading part in the degree, was the best we ever saw; he was also ably supported by others that took principal parts.

"We have heard it said that the reason that the Degree staff did not receive a higher prize, was that some of the members "fell down" in the Ritualistic work. Be that as it may. We will say to the Imperial Degree Staff although you did not have the honor of winning a higher prize, we are certainly proud of your exemplification at Indianapolis, and still think that you rank with the best staffs in this or any other jurisdiction. We understand that the Imperial Degree staff will go to Winnipeg, to again compete for a prize, and we wish it success."

Isaac M. Jordon and John L. Sullivan, representing the jurisdiction of Ohio in the Sovereign Grand lodge, the supreme legislative body of the world in Odd Fellowship, has this to say of Imperial Degree staff:

"Ohio had three Degree staffs competing for prizes, the Imperial Degree staff of Temple lodge, No. 227, of Washington C. H., a staff from Anderton lodge, No. 829, of Dayton, and the Degree staff of Junia encampment, No. 6, of Columbus. To the Imperial staff was awarded the third prize in the First degree and Junia Encampment carried off second honors in both the Patriarchal and Royal Purple degrees. It was not our privilege to witness the work of any of these staffs except the Imperial. We cannot speak too highly of the splendid work they did. The fine dramatic effect, impressive rendering of ritualistic work and the precision and appropriateness of the floor movement, all combined to make their work of a very high character. Capt. Chaffin and every member of the staff deserve the thanks of the Order of Ohio for their work."

No one body of men has ever advertised Washington C. H. like Imperial Degree staff, and the city is justly proud of the magnificent organization which has already carried the name of the city throughout all Odd Fellowdom, and will draw still greater attention to the city by their work in the future.

As the citizens awaken to the great benefit the team is to Washington and Fayette county, they become more and more enthusiastic supporters of Imperial Degree staff. The eyes of tens of thousands of Odd Fellows in the state and hundreds of thousands of them throughout the nation, have their eyes on the team that is adding fame to its home city. nation are on the team that is adding fame to its home city.

Co-Receivers Named For Wonder Company By Judge Carpenter

Numerous Conferences Between Interested Parties Result in Agreement Between Representatives of Conflicting Interests.

CHAS. A. REID AND ED. L. BUSH

Named by Court to Act With Mr. Kyle and Take Charge of Affairs of Company and Administer Trust for Benefit of All.

A number of meetings of the Board of Directors of the Wonder Manufacturing Company, and representatives of the creditors and the stockholders of the company, have been held within the past 48 hours in order to bring about a more satisfactory adjustment of the company's affairs by the appointment of co-receivers to act in conjunction with Mr. R. C. Kyle in handling the affairs of the big concern. It was urged that the work was too heavy and the duties too many and interests too conflicting for one man to handle satisfactorily to all and that three men instead of one were necessary to look after the work and give all parties interested representation.

As a result of the several meetings a motion was made by the Wonder Manufacturing Company and the Board of Directors, to have the court appoint two co-receivers, Mr. C. A. Reid and Mr. E. L. Bush, that the interests of all creditors and stockholders might be represented and given attention.

This motion, made in the case of the Electric Welder Company, of Kokomo, Ind., was sustained by Judge Carpenter on agreement of all parties and the two men appointed co-receivers to assist Mr. Kyle. The three men were required to furnish $20,000 joint-bond. This was done and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore was given as surety.

The receivers were also instructed to take charge of all the property of the company, etc., and to make an inventory and report to the court accordingly. The receivers were also directed to continue to operate the plant to the best of their ability and have full charge of its affairs.

The $7,500 bond furnished by Mr. Kyle was held to no longer be in force since the joint bond of $20,000 was given.

Attorneys for the plaintiffs and thirteen directors signed approving the entry.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The steam roller is preparing Main, Market and Hinde streets for oil.

The people of the entire city are anxious for those streets, used as they are by a multiude of strangers as well as our own citizens, to be put in a passable condition, and the disease bearing dust to be put under the healthful influences of oil.

In this connection it should be noted that Council and city officials are not to blame.

They have been anxious to be helpful and have co-operated with special meetings and personal attention.

The delay is attributable to the unwillingness and neglect of abutting property owners to sign the petitions asking for such benefits.

The Fourteenth Annual Conservatory Commencement

The fourteenth annual commencement of the Stinson Conservatory of Music passed off with eclat Thursday night at Conservatory hall and rivaled all its predecessors in brilliancy and beauty.

An audience that crowded the large hall vigorously applauded the quartet of charming young graduates and the concert numbers, which were ambitious to the highest degree. Each rendition of the entire program was an orchestral number, arranged for the piano, and each was the composition of a master artist.

Misses Vonna Robison and Bernice Holdren gave beautiful interpretation to the opening duet, "La Soir", Chaminade; Mr. D. A. Ferree followed with the invocation.

The four graduates, Misses Bernice Holdren, Vonna Robison, Senath Kellough, Golda Ryan, vied with each other for plaudits. Three of them played in very difficult concertos. Miss Robison, accompanied by Miss Holdren, gave fine rendition to Beethoven's Concerto, Op. 15, Andante, Allegro.

Miss Holdren showed splendid mastery of the Mendelssohn Concerto in G Minor, Op. 25, Andante, Allegro, Miss Robison, accompanist; Miss Kellough, accompanied by Miss Ryan, played the most brilliant of the Concertos, Bulow-Liszt's Concerto Hungarian Phantasie.

Miss Ryan displayed an enviable mastery of technique in two solos, one the difficult Octave Etude, No. 7, Sherwood-Kullak, upon which she won the silver medal in the W. C. T. U. piano contest, and Liszt's beautiful Rhapsodie Hungrois No. 2.

The class of 1912 is an unusually talented one, each young pianist showing marked individuality. Miss Holdren's forte is her accuracy and brilliant technique; Miss Kellough possesses the musical feeling which gives inspiration to the interpretation and is most artistic in her renditions. Miss Robison's special gifts are her delicacy of touch and perfect time and Miss Ryan her ability in heavy chord work and difficult technique. She played her heaviest numbers entirely without notes.

A greatly enjoyed feature of the commencement program was a one-act play, "The Nettle," a screaming little farce, in which Davis Edwards and Miss Jane Saxton assumed difficult roles with a finish and aplomb far above the amateur.

The acting of both, richly deserved the storm of applause evoked. With charming grace, Miss Saxton, as pretty as a picture in the rôle of Dulcie Meredith, beguiles the wrathful Guy Charlton, personified by Mr. Edwards, to an utter forgetfulness of his supposed wrongs and an absorption in her attractions that was a splendid bit of acting.

The scene at the tea table proved the piece de resistance.

A finely trained conservatory chorus of forty voices sang the class song, the words written by Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, of the faculty, and the music composed by Miss Bernice Holdren, who ably directed the chorus.

Three of the graduates had written class songs, Miss Robison receiving second place and playing the accompaniment.

The forty singers, the graluates in the center, and all in white, with a vivid background of flowers and greenery, made a beautiful picture.

The graduates made their last appearance in a piano quartet, Hungarian Dances, No. 1, 2, 5, Johannes Brahms; a very brilliant ensemble number, in which Miss Ryan carried the most difficult part.

With well chosen words of commendation, Mrs. Eldora Stinson presented the diplomas and Rev. Wm. Campbell pronounced the benediction.

The stage was elaborately decorated in the class colors, old rose and gray, with banks of palms and ferns and huge jardineres of rose peonies on either side and the class colors, with pennants of the class of 1912 and the Conservatory colors, green and white, waving overhead.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

The steam roller is preparing Main, Market and Hinde streets for oil.

The people of the entire city are anxious for those streets, used as they are by a multiude of strangers as well as our own citizens, to be put in a passable condition, and the disease bearing dust to be put under the healthful influences of oil.

In this connection it should be noted that Council and city officials are not to blame.

They have been anxious to be helpful and have co-operated with special meetings and personal attention.

The delay is attributable to the unwillingness and neglect of abutting property owners to sign the petitions asking for such benefits.

The Fourteenth Annual Conservatory Commencement

The fourteenth annual commencement of the Stinson Conservatory of Music passed off with eclat Thursday night at Conservatory hall and rivaled all its predecessors in brilliancy and beauty.

An audience that crowded the large hall vigorously applauded the quartet of charming young graduates and the concert numbers, which were ambitious to the highest degree. Each rendition of the entire program was an orchestral number, arranged for the piano, and each was the composition of a master artist.

Misses Vonna Robison and Bernice Holdren gave beautiful interpretation to the opening duet, "La Soir", Chaminade; Mr. D. A. Ferree followed with the invocation.

The four graduates, Misses Bernice Holdren, Vonna Robison, Senath Kellough, Golda Ryan, vied with each other for plaudits. Three of them played in very difficult concertos. Miss Robison, accompanied by Miss Holdren, gave fine rendition to Beethoven's Concerto, Op. 15, Andante, Allegro.

Miss Holdren showed splendid mastery of the Mendelssohn Concerto in G Minor, Op. 25, Andante, Allegro, Miss Robison, accompanist; Miss Kellough, accompanied by Miss Ryan, played the most brilliant of the Concertos, Bulow-Liszt's Concerto Hungarian Phantasie.

Miss Ryan displayed an enviable mastery of technique in two solos, one the difficult Octave Etude, No. 7, Sherwood-Kullak, upon which she won the silver medal in the W. C. T. U. piano contest, and Liszt's beautiful Rhapsodie Hungrois No. 2.

The class of 1912 is an unusually talented one, each young pianist showing marked individuality. Miss Holdren's forte is her accuracy and brilliant technique; Miss Kellough possesses the musical feeling which gives inspiration to the interpretation and is most artistic in her renditions. Miss Robison's special gifts are her delicacy of touch and perfect time and Miss Ryan her ability in heavy chord work and difficult technique. She played her heaviest numbers entirely without notes.

A greatly enjoyed feature of the commencement program was a one-act play, "The Nettle," a screaming little farce, in which Davis Edwards and Miss Jane Saxton assumed difficult roles with a finish and aplomb far above the amateur.

The acting of both, richly deserved the storm of applause evoked. With charming grace, Miss Saxton, as pretty as a picture in the rôle of Dulcie Meredith, beguiles the wrathful Guy Charlton, personified by Mr. Edwards, to an utter forgetfulness of his supposed wrongs and an absorption in her attractions that was a splendid bit of acting.

The scene at the tea table proved the piece de resistance.

A finely trained conservatory chorus of forty voices sang the class song, the words written by Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, of the faculty, and the music composed by Miss Bernice Holdren, who ably directed the chorus.

Three of the graduates had written class songs, Miss Robison receiving second place and playing the accompaniment.

The forty singers, the graluates in the center, and all in white, with a vivid background of flowers and greenery, made a beautiful picture.

The graduates made their last appearance in a piano quartet, Hungarian Dances, No. 1, 2, 5, Johannes Brahms; a very brilliant ensemble number, in which Miss Ryan carried the most difficult part.

With well chosen words of commendation, Mrs. Eldora Stinson presented the diplomas and Rev. Wm. Campbell pronounced the benediction.

The stage was elaborately decorated in the class colors, old rose and gray, with banks of palms and ferns and huge jardineres of rose peonies on either side and the class colors, with pennants of the class of 1912 and the Conservatory colors, green and white, waving overhead.

SHOULD POST UP.

The Constitutional convention having completed its labors and agreed on some two-score or more changes in the basic law of the state, the next important step in order is for the voters of the state to thoroughly inform themselves as to the proposed changes just exactly what they are and to what extent they differ from existing provisions and what the effect of the adoption of the proposed changes will be.

This will be no light task, but it is a task, the performance of which every voter in the state owes to himself and one which must be performed in person—one which cannot be sublet or performed by proxy.

The inclination of busy people to neglect the performance of a task like the one now imposed by the convention constitutes the one great menace to a free people. No man is too busy to stop long enough nor too tired to work hard enough to get these proposed changes clearly in his head and cast his vote understandingly on these important questions.

The great state of Ohio should spare no trouble or expense in placing the information on this all important matter in the hands of every voter.

Armed with the proposed changes and a comparison with existing provisions, an unbiased statement of the end sought to be accomplished and the probable effect, each voter should set determinedly to work to post himself.

The state, and that means the people, has already spent thousands and thousands of dollars in holding this convention. Men of brains and men of sterling integrity came to Columbus from all sections and corners of the state, they have conferred, exchanged views, heard arguments, received suggestions and, finally, have concluded their labors with the adoption of the proposals which the people are now to study and either accept or reject.

It would be as reprehensible to reject all without consideration as it would be dangerous to accept all indiscriminately.

It is up to the people whether the constitution is changed in whole or in part or whether it remains just as it is at present. They are charged with the duty of settling the questions, theirs will be the reward if the work is done right and they will be the sufferers for any mistake made.

A HEALTH SCHOOL IN KANSAS.

Since the secretary of the Kansas State Board of Health started the slogan "swat the flies," and led the way in the campaign against common drinking-cups, roller-towels and other long-accepted abominations, the public has come to look to Kansas for advanced ideas on health matters. The announcement of the second annual summer school for Kansas physicians and health officers, to be held at the state university, June 10-15, is another evidence of progress in the sunflower state. County and city health officers and physicians interested in public health work are to devote a week to the study of methods of sanitation, water supply, sewage disposal and other sanitary measures. Medical officers of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service and other well-known scientific men are to lecture, conduct laboratory courses and give demonstrations of food, drug and house inspections for the benefit of those in attendance. It would seem that this plan will without doubt be of great value in developing competent local health officers and in improving the health of the people of the state.

"What's the matter with Kansas?"

She seems to be all right along a great many reform lines. Some movements are too radical to be accepted, most of them are startlingly in their "newness" but many have been found to be wholly good and absolutely practical.

The movements looking to bettering the health conditions of the people have resulted in giving to humanity reforms of tremendous good and this latest move will be watched with interest.

Every City Should Have Ample Facilities For Uplifting Juvenile Delinquents

EVERY CITY SHOULD HAVE AMPLE FACILITIES FOR THE CARE OF THE HUNDREDS OF GIRLS AND BOYS WHO HAVE BEEN DECLARED DELINQUENTS FOR THE COMMISSION OF MISDEEDS, WHICH ARE OFTEN DUE TO THE NEGLIGENCE OF THEIR PARENTS AND TO THEIR ENVIRONMENT.

We need houses of detention, public buildings where the moral and educational wants of these poor unfortunates can be properly administered unto.

At present in large cities we have no accommodations for these unfortunates and are forced to place girls who are guilty of nothing more serious than truancy in the same institution with the girl—and often the woman—who has fallen entirely from grace. This is a great injustice, and we should never cease in our efforts to see that this wrong is righted.

Will Manufacture Paper From Grass

El Paso, Texas, is to have a paper mill alongside the arena in which that famous place has had other kinds of mills which are more talked about. This new mill is of a good deal of consequence as compared with the pugilistic mills. It is to make paper of bear grass. Even the thrifty wisdom of Texas was not equal to making anything but a nuisance of bear grass before the paper idea wis worked out at St. Louis. After five years of success in Missouri, El Paso, in the midst of millions of acres of the grass, is going to make paper. It is claimed that the highest grades of paper for ordinary print and commercial uses can be made of bear grass, and the prices range lower because there is an abundant supply and the cost is all in gathering the grass. An acre of bear grass makes nearly as much paper as an acre of Maine spruce trees, and the grass grows annually. It looks like sharp competion for the spruce, which grows in no such hurry as that by about 40 years.

Son Finds Trace Of Missing Minister

The country around Louisville is being carefully and thoroughly searched for the Rev. Louis S. Fuller, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bidwell, O., and a worker in the cause of the Anti-Saloon League, who disappeared from Bidwell Feb. 2, last. His mind is believed to be affected. Louis Holmes Fuller, a son of the missing man, arrived in Louisville Sunday, after having driven all over the state in an effort to find his father. Mr. Fuller, who resides with other members of the family at 621 Oakwood avenue, Columbus, O., having moved there recently from Lexington, Ky., says he has reason to believe his father was in Eminence about three weeks ago. He traced him from there to Milton, Trimble county, and from there to Bedford, Ky. In the latter place he preached on the court house steps and gave his name as Butler. The man who is believed to be the Rev. Mr. Fuller, calls himself the preacher-poet and says he is from Georgia.

Two weeks ago he stopped at the house of Sam Garret, six miles from LaGrange. He told Mr. Garret he intended to preach at LaGrange, but his son thinks he changed his mind.

The son says that he has lost all trace of his father since then, but is convinced that the latter is still in the vicinity of Louisville. Pictures which Mr. Fuller has shown persons who came in contact with his father, have been identified positively, although it is said that the Rev. Mr. Fuller has let his hair grow until it reaches down to his shoulders.

All those who have heard the man say he is a splendid preacher but they agree that he wanders away from the text. His actions at times are peculiar, the son declares. For instance, whenever he passes the collection box he will say: "Give something or take out something."

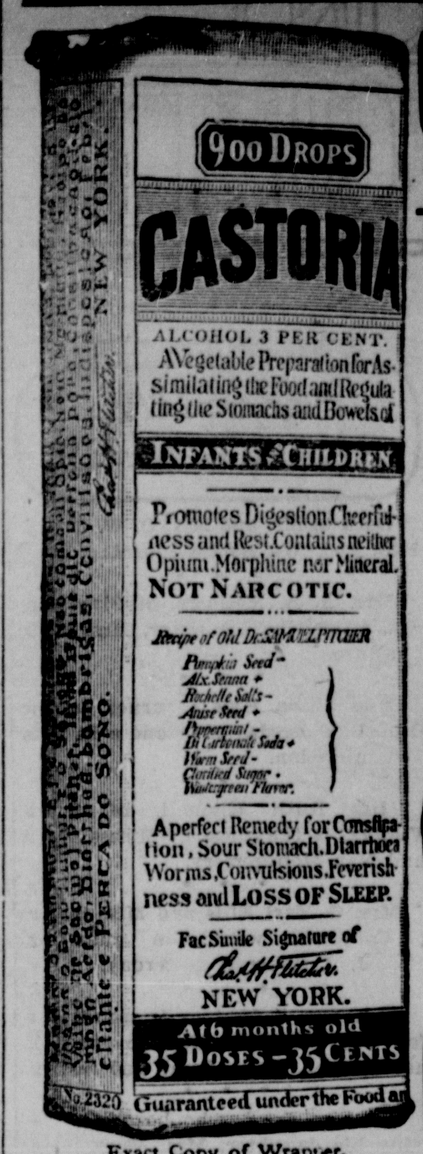

According to the son the Rev. Mr. Fuller has toured the state of Kentucky as well as other states in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League, and was the assistant of Dr. N. A. Parker, State superintendent of the league. He became unbalanced from overwork, the son believes—Ashland Independent.

Japan Is Taking America's Trade

A recent article in the Washington, D. C. Post says:

"The United States and Great Britain are being distanced by Japan in the rivalry for the Chinese cotton goods market. What Japan did not secure through baffling the "open-door" policy enunciated by John Hay, she is fast acquiring through superior business organization. Direct from factory to consumer is the method that gives the little brown man a telling advantage, and one that the Caucasian competitors find practically impossible to employ. In a word, the Japanese have eliminated the middleman, while the Yankee and British are still selling after a fashion that gives four Chinese concerns each a profit or commission before the goods reach the customer. It is not surprising, therefore, to know that there was a shrinkage of 1,500,000 pieces of American cloths in 1910 and 4,000,000 pieces of British, while Japanese trade expanded 4,500,000 pieces during the same period. These losses represent a heavy percentage of the entire volume of American and British exports to China, and if the inroad keeps up at the present rate Japan will soon have a monopoly. However, the Chinese themselves are astir, and cannot longer be regarded as a negligable factor. While it does not appear that the Chinese cotton mills are able to undersell the Japs, they are competing with the other foreigners successfully, and adding to their capacity every year.

The consular report giving these shrinking facts conveys the impression that this lost ground cannot be recovered. Japan is improving her position in other lines and seems determined to make the "open door" a meaningless phrase. The Panama canal is counted on to cheapen the cost of transportation to China, but the increasing cost of production in England and America promises to minimize the advantage the canal will afford."

NERVOUS, DEBILITATED AND RUN-DOWN

EITHER THE REST CURE OR TONA VITA WILL BUILD YOU UP AGAIN.

If you are nervous, debilitated, and run-down in health, there are two things you can do to bring back your strength and vitality. You can go to a sanitarium and take the rest cure or you can secure the great modern tonic "Tona Vita" and let it build you up and furnish new nourishment for your shattered nerves.

If you knew what wonderful results have been accomplished by "Tona Vita" since physicians first introduced it in this country you would much rather take this tonic than to go to any sanitarium on earth. Here is a statement from Mr. J. B. House, of 381 Twentieth Ave., Milwaukee, Wis., who has tried "Tona Vita." "I was all run down intensely nervous and suffered with the most violent headaches. I felt tired and dull all day, my body seemed benumbed at times, and I did not sleep well. My digestion was imperfect and I was continually constipated. As soon as I ate anything my stomach filled with gas and I was distressed for a half hour or more. My mind was dull and my memory very poor. I contracted a cold easily and suffered with severe coughs. Sometime ago I talked with a physician who advised me to take 'Tona Vita'. I did it and am glad I did for the medicine was wonderful in my case. I feel as though I had a new lease on life. My ambition has returned as well as my strength and energy.

"I now sleep well and get up in the morning feeling cheerful and ready for work.

"My wife was also run down and nervous. She started taking the medicine when it began to help me. Her improvement has been fine and she is now in good health."

If you are run down and haven't enough strength it is your own fault if you feel miserable a day longer, when you can get such a preparation as "Tona Vita."

Brown's Drug Store, Court and Fayette streets is agent for Tona Vita in Washington C. H. and will refund the purchase price if it is not entirely satisfactory. The Approved Formula Co., Dayton, O.

The country around Louisville is being carefully and thoroughly searched for the Rev. Louis S. Fuller, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Bidwell, O., and a worker in the cause of the Anti-Saloon League, who disappeared from Bidwell Feb. 2, last. His mind is believed to be affected. Louis Holmes Fuller, a son of the missing man, arrived in Louisville Sunday, after having driven all over the state in an effort to find his father. Mr. Fuller, who resides with other members of the family at 621 Oakwood avenue, Columbus, O., having moved there recently from Lexington, Ky., says he has reason to believe his father was in Eminence about three weeks ago. He traced him from there to Milton, Trimble county, and from there to Bedford, Ky. In the latter place he preached on the court house steps and gave his name as Butler. The man who is believed to be the Rev. Mr. Fuller, calls himself the preacher-poet and says he is from Georgia.

Two weeks ago he stopped at the house of Sam Garret, six miles from LaGrange. He told Mr. Garret he intended to preach at LaGrange, but his son thinks he changed his mind.

The son says that he has lost all trace of his father since then, but is convinced that the latter is still in the vicinity of Louisville. Pictures which Mr. Fuller has shown persons who came in contact with his father, have been identified positively, although it is said that the Rev. Mr. Fuller has let his hair grow until it reaches down to his shoulders.

All those who have heard the man say he is a splendid preacher but they agree that he wanders away from the text. His actions at times are peculiar, the son declares. For instance, whenever he passes the collection box he will say: "Give something or take out something."

According to the son the Rev. Mr. Fuller has toured the state of Kentucky as well as other states in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League, and was the assistant of Dr. N. A. Parker, State superintendent of the league. He became unbalanced from overwork, the son believes—Ashland Independent.

Japan Is Taking America's Trade

A recent article in the Washington, D. C. Post says:

"The United States and Great Britain are being distanced by Japan in the rivalry for the Chinese cotton goods market. What Japan did not secure through baffling the "open-door" policy enunciated by John Hay, she is fast acquiring through superior business organization. Direct from factory to consumer is the method that gives the little brown man a telling advantage, and one that the Caucasian competitors find practically impossible to employ. In a word, the Japanese have eliminated the middleman, while the Yankee and British are still selling after a fashion that gives four Chinese concerns each a profit or commission before the goods reach the customer. It is not surprising, therefore, to know that there was a shrinkage of 1,500,000 pieces of American cloths in 1910 and 4,000,000 pieces of British, while Japanese trade expanded 4,500,000 pieces during the same period. These losses represent a heavy percentage of the entire volume of American and British exports to China, and if the inroad keeps up at the present rate Japan will soon have a monopoly. However, the Chinese themselves are astir, and cannot longer be regarded as a negligable factor. While it does not appear that the Chinese cotton mills are able to undersell the Japs, they are competing with the other foreigners successfully, and adding to their capacity every year.

The consular report giving these shrinking facts conveys the impression that this lost ground cannot be recovered. Japan is improving her position in other lines and seems determined to make the "open door" a meaningless phrase. The Panama canal is counted on to cheapen the cost of transportation to China, but the increasing cost of production in England and America promises to minimize the advantage the canal will afford."

Committeeman Frank B. Kellogg of St. Paul offered an amendment to Mr. Hart's amendment calling for the admission of the two representatives from each of the five press associations and also for one representative of all the newspaper correspondents entitled to the privileges of the house of representatives. The Kellogg amendment was defeated, 39 to 13.

The committee will sit daily, without even an adjournment for luncheon, until the 24 contests have been disposed of. The lawyers and contestants are here ready to go before the committee.

Ormsby McHarg was the Roosevelt expert to look after the colonel's interests in the battle over the temporary rollcall of the convention. He is the general overseer and will be backed up in the legal end by Bainbridge Colby of New York.

NERVOUS, DEBILITATED AND RUN-DOWN

EITHER THE REST CURE OR TONA VITA WILL BUILD YOU UP AGAIN.

If you are nervous, debilitated, and run-down in health, there are two things you can do to bring back your strength and vitality. You can go to a sanitarium and take the rest cure or you can secure the great modern tonic "Tona Vita" and let it build you up and furnish new nourishment for your shattered nerves.

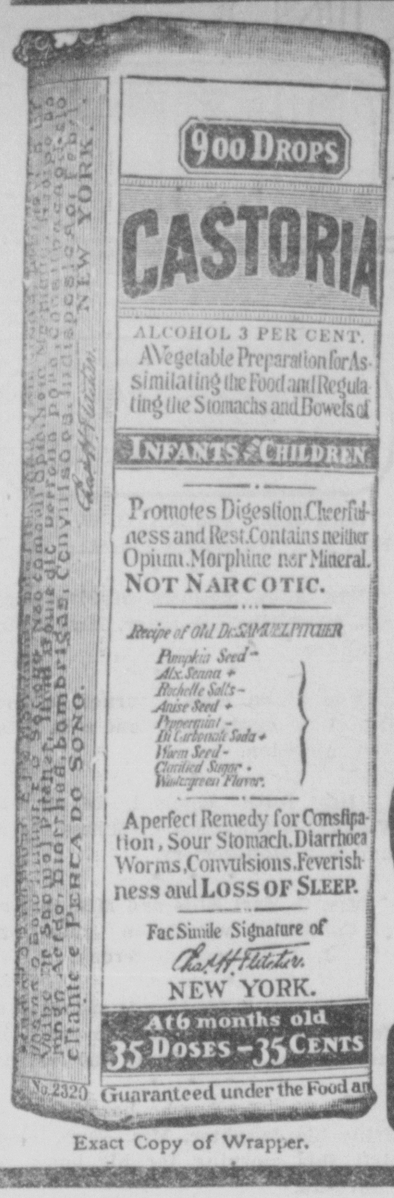

If you knew what wonderful results have been accomplished by "Tona Vita" since physicians first introduced it in this country you would much rather take this tonic than to go to any sanitarium on earth. Here is a statement from Mr. J. B. House, of 381 Twentieth Ave., Milwaukee, Wis., who has tried "Tona Vita." "I was all run down intensely nervous and suffered with the most violent headaches. I felt tired and dull all day, my body seemed benumbed at times, and I did not sleep well. My digestion was imperfect and I was continually constipated. As soon as I ate anything my stomach filled with gas and I was distressed for a half hour or more. My mind was dull and my memory very poor. I contracted a cold easily and suffered with severe coughs. Sometime ago I talked with a physician who advised me to take 'Tona Vita'. I did it and am glad I did for the medicine was wonderful in my case. I feel as though I had a new lease on life. My ambition has returned as well as my strength and energy.

"I now sleep well and get up in the morning feeling cheerful and ready for work.

"My wife was also run down and nervous. She started taking the medicine when it began to help me. Her improvement has been fine and she is now in good health."

If you are run down and haven't enough strength it is your own fault if you feel miserable a day longer, when you can get such a preparation as "Tona Vita."

Brown's Drug Store, Court and Fayette streets is agent for Tona Vita in Washington C. H. and will refund the purchase price if it is not entirely satisfactory. The Approved Formula Co., Dayton, O.

SHOULD POST UP.

The Constitutional convention having completed its labors and agreed on some two-score or more changes in the basic law of the state, the next important step in order is for the voters of the state to thoroughly inform themselves as to the proposed changes just exactly what they are and to what extent they differ from existing provisions and what the effect of the adoption of the proposed changes will be.

This will be no light task, but it is a task, the performance of which every voter in the state owes to himself and one which must be performed in person—one which cannot be sublet or performed by proxy.

The inclination of busy people to neglect the performance of a task like the one now imposed by the convention constitutes the one great menace to a free people. No man is too busy to stop long enough nor too tired to work hard enough to get these proposed changes clearly in his head and cast his vote understandingly on these important questions.

The great state of Ohio should spare no trouble or expense in placing the information on this all important matter in the hands of every voter.

Armed with the proposed changes and a comparison with existing provisions, an unbiased statement of the end sought to be accomplished and the probable effect, each voter should set determinedly to work to post himself.

The state, and that means the people, has already spent thousands and thousands of dollars in holding this convention. Men of brains and men of sterling integrity came to Columbus from all sections and corners of the state, they have conferred, exchanged views, heard arguments, received suggestions and, finally, have concluded their labors with the adoption of the proposals which the people are now to study and either accept or reject.

It would be as reprehensible to reject all without consideration as it would be dangerous to accept all indiscriminately.

It is up to the people whether the constitution is changed in whole or in part or whether it remains just as it is at present.

They are charged with the duty of settling the questions, theirs will be the reward if the work is done right and they will be the sufferers for any mistake made.

A HEALTH SCHOOL IN KANSAS.

Since the secretary of the Kansas State Board of Health started the slogan "swat the flies," and led the way in the campaign against common drinking-cups, roller-towels and other long-accepted abominations, the public has come to look to Kansas for advanced ideas on health matters. The announcement of the second annual summer school for Kansas physicians and health officers, to be held at the state university, June 10-15, is another evidence of progress in the sunflower state. County and city health officers and physicians interested in public health work are to devote a week to the study of methods of sanitation, water supply, sewage disposal and other sanitary measures. Medical officers of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service and other well-known scientific men are to lecture, conduct laboratory courses and give demonstrations of food, drug and house inspections for the benefit of those in attendance. It would seem that this plan will without doubt be of great value in developing competent local health officers and in improving the health of the people of the state.

"What's the matter with Kansas?"

She seems to be all right along a great many reform lines. Some movements are too radical to be accepted, most of them are startlingly in their "newness" but many have been found to be wholly good and absolutely practical.

The movements looking to bettering the health conditions of the people have resulted in giving to humanity reforms of tremendous good and this latest move will be watched with interest.

Every City Should Have Ample Facilities For Uplifting Juvenile Delinquents

By Dr. A. S. ORNE, Sociologist and Humanitarian

EVERY CITY SHOULD HAVE AMPLE FACILITIES FOR THE CARE OF THE HUNDREDS OF GIRLS AND BOYS WHO HAVE BEEN DECLARED DELINQUENTS FOR THE COMMISSION OF MISDEEDS, WHICH ARE OFTEN DUE TO THE NEGLIGENCE OF THEIR PARENTS AND TO THEIR ENVIRONMENT.

We need houses of detention, public buildings where the moral and educational wants of these poor unfortunates can be properly administered unto.

At present in large cities we have no accommodations for these unfortunates and are forced to place girls who are guilty of nothing more serious than truancy in the same institution with the girl—and often the woman—who has fallen entirely from grace. This is a great injustice, and we should never cease in our efforts to see that this wrong is righted.

Poetry-Today

YANKEE JUSTICE.

The plow of Agriculture sweeps
Across a mighty land,
It runs its furrows broad and deep
Through loam, and clay and sand.
With gathering speed to meet the need
With monster crops of grain—
But Yankee Justice jogs along
On Dillydally Lane!

The wheels of Commerce swiftly turn
To conquer time and space,
Its lightning messengers but fly
To serve the human race.
To guess, to know, with instant skill,
To see the hour, and strike—
But Yankee Justice crawls along
On Shysterlawer Pike.

The wings of Art bear fast and far
The Beautiful and True,
To tell the glory of the old,
The graces of the new,
To find the secret of the fair,
The charm that doth bewitch—
But Yankee Justice grubs along
The Graftandollar Ditch.

Will Manufacture Paper From Grass

El Paso, Texas, is to have a paper mill alongside the arena in which that famous place has had other kinds of mills which are more talked about. This new mill is of a good deal of consequence as compared with the pugilistic mills. It is to make paper of bear grass. Even the thrifty wisdom of Texas was not equal to making anything but a nuisance of bear grass before the paper idea wis worked out at St. Louis. After five years of success in Missouri, El Paso, in the midst of millions of acres of the grass, is going to make paper. It is claimed that the highest grades of paper for ordinary print and commercial uses can be made of bear grass, and the prices range lower because there is an abundant supply and the cost is all in gathering the grass. An acre of bear grass makes nearly as much paper as an acre of Maine spruce trees, and the grass grows annually. It looks like sharp competion for the spruce, which grows in no such hurry as that by about 40 years.

HAGELGANZ RELEASED FROM PICKAWAY JAIL

Important State Witness Missing and Man Accused of One of the Most Atrocious Crimes in History of Ohio Is Released and Hurries Homeward---Man May Never Be Tried on Murder Charge.

Henry Hagelganz, accused of the murder of his sister, Fannie Hagelganz, whose remains were found in her home near Orient in the fall of 1909, was released from the Pickaway county jail Thursday morning after being held in that institution since January 15th.

Hagelganz was indicted for the murder of his sister, following the confession of Mrs. Luella Roebuck, and who has since been made an outcast by her family and husband. The woman claimed to have overheard the men discussing the murder.

The entry made in the case and relating to the man's release, reads:

"This day came the prosecuting attorney on behalf of the State of Ohio also came Henry Hagelganz in the custody of the sheriff, his counsel, I. N. Abernethy and I. F. Snyder, also being present. The counsel for defendant asked to have the case set for trial.

"The prosecuting attorney represented to the court that an important witness for the state is absent from the state and that the state cannot go to trial without said witness, and made application to the court to permit the defendant to go upon his own recognizance, which application was granted and bond fixed at $1,000, which was given and said defendant was ordered released from custody of the sheriff.

"Approved, C. A. Leist for state.

"Abernethy and Snyder for defendant."

Mrs. Luella Roebuck is the missing witness, having disappeared since her trouble at Reeseville.

When he tried to sign his name to the bond, Hagelganz was so nervous that he could not write, and had to make his mark. It is generally believed that Hagelganz will never be tried on the charge, and the mysterious murder which has attracted such widespread attention, is now shrouded in deeper mystery than ever before.

Upon his release Hagelganz hurried to his home near Westerville.

DOINGS IN OHIO

Fortune Comes Too Late.

Columbus, O., June 7.—Wylie Ferguson, colored, whose sentence of life imprisonment for the killing of John Smyre was affirmed a few days ago, will have a small fortune to his credit when he goes to the pen to spend the remainder of his days, according to a letter received by Chief of Police Carter a few days ago. The letter states that several thousand dollars was left to Ferguson by Baldwin Jackson, who died at Butte, Mont. According to the letter Jackson visited Columbus about 10 years ago, "down and out." Ferguson befriended him with $10. Ferguson is now in the county jail and has not yet been informed of his good luck.

Alderman Draws Jail Sentence.

Columbus, O., June 7.—Alva Dean Alderman, formed editor and postmaster of Marietta, was fined $3,078.98 and sentenced to serve 10 month in the Miami county jail at Troy, when he pleaded guilty to embezzling $3,078.98 of the postal funds before Judge J. E. Sater in the federal court. As Mr. Alderman had paid the government the full amount of the embezzlement, this restitution takes the place of his fine. Mr. Alderman declared that he had not benefited by the funds found short, but that the shortage must have resulted from clerical errors.

Auto Accident Results In $3,000 Damage Suit

A suit for damages in which the circumstances are somewhat out of the ordinary, was filed against Ora Upp and his father, J. E. Upp, of Greenfield, this week, by Hack Walley, in which Walley asks $3,000 damages for injuries received in an auto accident which occurred between Greenfield and this city some time ago.

The accident will be recalled by Washington citizens, and was due to the Upp machine striking a horse and turning turtle, pinioning the men under the machine and nearly killing Ora Upp before the heavy auto could be removed.

In his petition Walley states that on Jan. 2nd he was employed by the defendants to move a traction engine from Sabina to Greenfield. He was to be paid $3 and be furnished with board and lodging, for himself and team. He had reached Buena Vista, when Ora Upp requested him to enter an automobile, the property of the defendant and to ride with him to Greenfield to spend the night and to be returned by him in the morning.

The plaintiff states that he entered the automobile and when near Greenfield the automobile collided with a horse which caused the machine to turn over. The accident, Walley charges to Upp's carelessness and recklessness. Walley claims that three ribs were broken and he suffered internal injuries and sickness. For all of which Walley asks for damages in the sum of $3000.

VICIOUS DOG CAUSES TWO DAMAGE SUITS

Louis F. Stolzenberg Is Again Made Defendant in an Action for $1,000 Damages Because Savage Canine Attacks and Dangerously Wounds Woman. Two Suits of Same Nature Now Pending.

For the second time within the past few months, Louis F. Stolzenberg, a resident of John street, this city, has been made defendant in a damage suit because a vicious dog he harbored attacked and inflicted dangerous wounds on a woman.

On April 30, 1912, Lydia Estel, wife of James Estel, brought suit against Stolzenberg for $1,000 damages because a vicious dog owned by the defendant had attacked and severely bitten her upon the arm, causing her much suffering and expense.

Immediately following this it was announced that the dog had been killed, but such was not the case, it seems, and first of this week the animal attacked Lillie McFadden and mangled her left hand in a most shocking manner, inflicting a wound that has been pronounced a dangerous one.

Through Attorneys Gregg & Gregg Lillie McFadden Friday filed suit against Stolzenberg in which she asks $1,000 for damages because of the injuries inflicted by the savage canine.

The plaintiff sets forth that she resides on John street some two squares from the defendant, and that on June 3rd she visited the Stolzenberg home and was attacked by the dog as above mentioned, and that by reason of the wound she has suffered a severe nervous shock in addition to great physical pain, necessitating the attention of a physician and heavy expense.

The first case has not yet been tried, and both cases will be watched by all who own dogs or are troubled with vicious animals.

It is claimed upon reliable authority that Stolzenberg killed the animal soon after it attacked Mrs. McFadden.

Havana."

While definite information is lacking there are many rumors that small bands of armed negroes are appearing on all sides in the vicinity of Havana. The mayors are everywhere organizing volunteers.

Rotsia Abrou, the richest woman in Cuba, who resides at Palatino, a suburb of Havana, visited President Gomez and said that suspicious groups of negroes were threatening her home. The chief of police with 25 mounted men rode about the suburbs without finding any rebels.

Many negroes are arriving in Havaa every hour. In the house of one Barlette the police found a manifesto dated Jan. 15, addressed to the negroes, and exhorting them to exterminate the whites. The negroes, according to the manifesto, were the only Cubans who had sacrificed themselves for Cuban independence.

The government is enlisting coast artillerymen to fill up vacancies in the ranks. In Santiago the Spaniards are organizing volunteers and paying them $1.50 a day and equipping them besides..

President Gomez has instructed General Monteagudo, the commander-in-chief of the Cuban forces, to withdraw his men wherever the American marines undertake to protect property and to gather up the arms issued to citizens. At the same time they are to draw up a declaration that the properties are being adequately protected by the Americans, that such protection was unsolicited, and that in consequence of the substitution of Americans for Cubans the Cuban republic repudiates all responsibility for any damage which may occur. This declaration is to be signed by the commanders of the American and Cuban forces, and any rebels who surrender to the Americans are to be delivered to the Cuban authorities.

HAGELGANZ RELEASED FROM PICKAWAY JAIL

Important State Witness Missing and Man Accused of One of the Most Atrocious Crimes in History of Ohio Is Released and Hurries Homeward---Man May Never Be Tried on Murder Charge.

Henry Hagelganz, accused of the murder of his sister, Fannie Hagelganz, whose remains were found in her home near Orient in the fall of 1909, was released from the Pickaway county jail Thursday morning after being held in that institution since January 15th.

Hagelganz was indicted for the murder of his sister, following the confession of Mrs. Luella Roebuck, and who has since been made an outcast by her family and husband. The woman claimed to have overheard the men discussing the murder.

The entry made in the case and relating to the man's release, reads:

"This day came the prosecuting attorney on behalf of the State of Ohio also came Henry Hagelganz in the custody of the sheriff, his counsel, I. N. Abernethy and I. F. Snyder, also being present. The counsel for defendant asked to have the case set for trial.

"The prosecuting attorney represented to the court that an important witness for the state is absent from the state and that the state cannot go to trial without said witness, and made application to the court to permit the defendant to go upon his own recognizance, which application was granted and bond fixed at $1,000, which was given and said defendant was ordered released from custody of the sheriff.

"Approved, C. A. Leist for state.

"Abernethy and Snyder for defendant."

Mrs. Luella Roebuck is the missing witness, having disappeared since her trouble at Reeseville.

When he tried to sign his name to the bond, Hagelganz was so nervous that he could not write, and had to make his mark. It is generally believed that Hagelganz will never be tried on the charge, and the mysterious murder which has attracted such widespread attention, is now shrouded in deeper mystery than ever before.

Upon his release Hagelganz hurried to his home near Westerville.

VICIOUS DOG CAUSES TWO DAMAGE SUITS

Louis F. Stolzenberg Is Again Made Defendant in an Action for $1,000 Damages Because Savage Canine Attacks and Dangerously Wounds Woman. Two Suits of Same Nature Now Pending.

For the second time within the past few months, Louis F. Stolzenberg, a resident of John street, this city, has been made defendant in a damage suit because a vicious dog he harbored attacked and inflicted dangerous wounds on a woman.

On April 30, 1912, Lydia Estel, wife of James Estel, brought suit against Stolzenberg for $1,000 damages because a vicious dog owned by the defendant had attacked and severely bitten her upon the arm, causing her much suffering and expense.

Immediately following this it was announced that the dog had been killed, but such was not the case, it seems, and first of this week the animal attacked Lillie McFadden and mangled her left hand in a most shocking manner, inflicting a wound that has been pronounced a dangerous one.

Through Attorneys Gregg & Gregg Lillie McFadden Friday filed suit against Stolzenberg in which she asks $1,000 for damages because of the injuries inflicted by the savage canine.

Havana."

While definite information is lacking there are many rumors that small bands of armed negroes are appearing on all sides in the vicinity of Havana. The mayors are everywhere organizing volunteers.

Rotsia Abrou, the richest woman in Cuba, who resides at Palatino, a suburb of Havana, visited President Gomez and said that suspicious groups of negroes were threatening her home. The chief of police with 25 mounted men rode about the suburbs without finding any rebels.

Many negroes are arriving in Havaa every hour. In the house of one Barlette the police found a manifesto dated Jan. 15, addressed to the negroes, and exhorting them to exterminate the whites. The negroes, according to the manifesto, were the only Cubans who had sacrificed themselves for Cuban independence.

The government is enlisting coast artillerymen to fill up vacancies in the ranks. In Santiago the Spaniards are organizing volunteers and paying them $1.50 a day and equipping them besides.

President Gomez has instructed General Monteagudo, the commander-in-chief of the Cuban forces, to withdraw his men wherever the American marines undertake to protect property and to gather up the arms issued to citizens. At the same time they are to draw up a declaration that the properties are being adequately protected by the Americans, that such protection was unsolicited, and that in consequence of the substitution of Americans for Cubans the Cuban republic repudiates all responsibility for any damage which may occur. This declaration is to be signed by the commanders of the American and Cuban forces, and any rebels who surrender to the Americans are to be delivered to the Cuban authorities.

HAGELGANZ RELEASED FROM PICKAWAY JAIL

Important State Witness Missing and Man Accused of One of the Most Atrocious Crimes in History of Ohio Is Released and Hurries Homeward---Man May Never Be Tried on Murder Charge.

Henry Hagelganz, accused of the murder of his sister, Fannie Hagelganz, whose remains were found in her home near Orient in the fall of 1909, was released from the Pickaway county jail Thursday morning after being held in that institution since January 15th.

Hagelganz was indicted for the murder of his sister, following the confession of Mrs. Luella Roebuck, and who has since been made an outcast by her family and husband. The woman claimed to have overheard the men discussing the murder.

The entry made in the case and relating to the man's release, reads:

"This day came the prosecuting attorney on behalf of the State of Ohio also came Henry Hagelganz in the custody of the sheriff, his counsel, I. N. Abernethy and I. F. Snyder, also being present. The counsel for defendant asked to have the case set for trial.

"The prosecuting attorney represented to the court that an important witness for the state is absent from the state and that the state cannot go to trial without said witness, and made application to the court to permit the defendant to go upon his own recognizance, which application was granted and bond fixed at $1,000, which was given and said defendant was ordered released from custody of the sheriff.

"Approved, C. A. Leist for state.

"Abernethy and Snyder for defendant."

Mrs. Luella Roebuck is the missing witness, having disappeared since her trouble at Reeseville.

When he tried to sign his name to the bond, Hagelganz was so nervous that he could not write, and had to make his mark. It is generally believed that Hagelganz will never be tried on the charge, and the mysterious murder which has attracted such widespread attention, is now shrouded in deeper mystery than ever before.

Upon his release Hagelganz hurried to his home near Westerville.

Fortune Comes Too Late.

Columbus, O., June 7.—Wylie Ferguson, colored, whose sentence of life imprisonment for the killing of John Smyre was affirmed a few days ago, will have a small fortune to his credit when he goes to the pen to spend the remainder of his days, according to a letter received by Chief of Police Carter a few days ago. The letter states that several thousand dollars was left to Ferguson by Baldwin Jackson, who died at Butte, Mont. According to the letter Jackson visited Columbus about 10 years ago, "down and out." E. Sater in the federal court. As Mr. Alderman had paid the government the full amount of the embezzlement, this restitution takes the place of his fine. Auto Accident Results In $3,000 Damage Suit

A suit for damages in which the circumstances are somewhat out of the ordinary, was filed against Ora Upp and his father, J. E. Upp, of Greenfield, this week, by Hack Walley, in which Walley asks $3,000 damages for injuries received in an auto accident which occurred between Greenfield and this city some time ago.

The accident will be recalled by Washington citizens, and was due to the Upp machine striking a horse and turning turtle, pinioning the men under the machine and nearly killing Ora Upp before the heavy auto could be removed.

In his petition Walley states that on Jan. 2nd he was employed by the defendants to move a traction engine from Sabina to Greenfield. He was to be paid $3 and be furnished with board and lodging, for himself and team. He had reached Buena Vista, when Ora Upp requested him to enter an automobile, the property of the defendant and to ride with him to Greenfield to spend the night and to be returned by him in the morning.

The plaintiff states that he entered the automobile and when near Greenfield the automobile collided with a horse which caused the machine to turn over. The accident, Walley charges to Upp's carelessness and recklessness. Walley claims that three ribs were broken and he suffered internal injuries and sickness. For all of which Walley asks for damages in the sum of $3000.

VICIOUS DOG CAUSES TWO DAMAGE SUITS

Louis F. Stolzenberg Is Again Made Defendant in an Action for $1,000 Damages Because Savage Canine Attacks and Dangerously Wounds Woman. Two Suits of Same Nature Now Pending.

For the second time within the past few months, Louis F. Stolzenberg, a resident of John street, this city, has been made defendant in a damage suit because a vicious dog he harbored attacked and inflicted dangerous wounds on a woman.

On April 30, 1912, Lydia Estel, wife of James Estel, brought suit against Stolzenberg for $1,000 damages because a vicious dog owned by the defendant had attacked and severely bitten her upon the arm, causing her much suffering and expense.

Immediately following this it was announced that the dog had been killed, but such was not the case, it seems, and first of this week the animal attacked Lillie McFadden and mangled her left hand in a most shocking manner, inflicting a wound that has been pronounced a dangerous one.

Through Attorneys Gregg & Gregg Lillie McFadden Friday filed suit against Stolzenberg in which she asks $1,000 for damages because of the injuries inflicted by the savage canine.

The plaintiff sets forth that she resides on John street some two squares from the defendant, and that on June 3rd she visited the Stolzenberg home and was attacked by the dog as above mentioned, and that by reason of the wound she has suffered a severe nervous shock in addition to great physical pain, necessitating the attention of a physician and heavy expense.

The first case has not yet been tried, and both cases will be watched by all who own dogs or are troubled with vicious animals.

It is claimed upon reliable authority that Stolzenberg killed the animal soon after it attacked Mrs. McFadden.

INVESTIGATE STANDING OF TRACTION MAGNATE

Committee From Springfield Commercial Club Visits Washington and Find That Geo. W. Baker Has High Rating and So Report to Springfield Capitalists.

A committee of business men from the Springfield Commercial club dropped quietly into this city this week and investigated the standing of George W. Baker, with a view to taking the bonds for the Springfield and Washington interurban railway, and only the best reports could be found everywhere, so that the committee was more than satisfied, as testified by the following mention in Friday's Springfield Sun:

"With a great many of the local merchants heartily in favor of the project to raise a guarantee fund to complete the $100,000 loan necessary to extend the Springfield-Washington C. H. traction line from South Charleston to Washington C. H., it is believed that in a short time the $35,000, which the committee has so far been unable to secure, will be subscribed by business men, outside of the banks.

"C. L. Nisley and J. Fred Anderson, secretary of the Commercial club, who were detailed to secure additional information for the merchants, have made a favorable report.

"They made a trip Wednesday to South Charleston, Washington C. H. and other points along the route of the proposed extension, and incidentally they heard nothing but praise for President Baker. He stands high in the regard of the business men in the various towns and villages, all of whom join in expressing the belief that his proposition is constructed on a sound basis.

In addition to investigating President Baker's personal standing, Messrs. Nisley and Anderson made an investigation in regard to the business which will come to Springfield in event of the realization of the proposed extension.

"According to their report, the volume of new business which will come to Springfield from the new field which will be opened up by the extension, will amply repay any expenditure in securing the completion of the traction line. Figures were secured which were gratifying, and with their report to act upon, it is believed the merchants will decide favorably upon the plan to secure a guarantee fund by popular subscription."

INVESTIGATE STANDING OF TRACTION MAGNATE

Committee From Springfield Commercial Club Visits Washington and Find That Geo. W. Baker Has High Rating and So Report to Springfield Capitalists.

A committee of business men from the Springfield Commercial club dropped quietly into this city this week and investigated the standing of George W. Baker, with a view to taking the bonds for the Springfield and Washington interurban railway, and only the best reports could be found everywhere, so that the committee was more than satisfied, as testified by the following mention in Friday's Springfield Sun:

"With a great many of the local merchants heartily in favor of the project to raise a guarantee fund to complete the $100,000 loan necessary to extend the Springfield-Washington C. H. traction line from South Charleston to Washington C. H., it is believed that in a short time the $35,000, which the committee has so far been unable to secure, will be subscribed by business men, outside of the banks.

"C. L. Nisley and J. Fred Anderson, secretary of the Commercial club, who were detailed to secure additional information for the merchants, have made a favorable report.

"They made a trip Wednesday to South Charleston, Washington C. H. and other points along the route of the proposed extension, and incidentally they heard nothing but praise for President Baker. He stands high in the regard of the business men in the various towns and villages, all of whom join in expressing the belief that his proposition is constructed on a sound basis.

In addition to investigating President Baker's personal standing, Messrs. Nisley and Anderson made an investigation in regard to the business which will come to Springfield in event of the realization of the proposed extension.

"According to their report, the volume of new business which will come to Springfield from the new field which will be opened up by the extension, will amply repay any expenditure in securing the completion of the traction line. Figures were secured which were gratifying, and with their report to act upon, it is believed the merchants will decide favorably upon the plan to secure a guarantee fund by popular subscription."

EDDIE FOSTER A STAR

His Work Has Been Beneficial to Washington.

Former Rochester Player Not Thought Good Enough for New York Giants Has Proven Tower of Strength for Griffith.

There are innumerable instances where good ball players have been let out by one major league club only to become stars for another after a little experience in a minor league. Eddie Foster is one of these. The question is often asked how Foster came to get away from New York. That club sent him to Rochester with the agreement that it would have the pick of the team in the fall. It is said that John Ganzel, the manager of that club, gave it as his opinion that Foster would not be of any help to his team, and he then consented to the sale of Foster to Washington, a deal which he undoubtedly has had reason to regret. Maurice Rath furnishes another instance or where a good ball player was allowed to slip through the hands of two major league clubs and is now making good for the White Sox with a vengeance. Philadelphia and Cleveland both had Rath, but he made good for neither because he was not played at the position where he belonged. They tried him at third and he failed, while he appears to be a wonderfully clever player at second.

What a wonderful difference the addition of one man can make in a ball team is proved in the case of Foster. While of course there have been many other changes in the make-up of the Nationals since last season, none of these appears to have been as beneficial to the team as the acquisition of Foster. He has filled a place where the team has always been weak and by his clever work at the bat has filled even a greater gap.

To Foster belongs the credit for most of the victories the Nationals have earned this spring. When he has not taken a part in the offensive end of the game he has prevented disaster by his remarkable fielding around third base. With a player less capable than he covering that position, it can be easily figured that three or four of the games which have been won would have been defeats.

On what he has shown this spring Foster is a remarkably clever ball player in every respect. One wonders that a man of his ability should have spent so long a time in the minor leagues. Few third basemen have shown themselves in the same class with the little fellow, nor does it seem reasonable to suppose that his showing has been a flash in the pan, for he is keeping up his good work at a consistent rate.

CLEVELAND FANS BECOMING DISSATISFIED

Manager Harry Davis.

Harry Davis, leader of the Naps, is having a hard time trying to figure out a winning combination, and if the Naps continue to show poorly, the "cry for Stovall" will surely be heard in Cleveland. At the beginning of the season Davis figured on a pennant, but his prize outfield, his crack infield, his wonderful pitching staff and his unbeatable catchers are not standing the gaff. One big drawback was the accident to Napoleon Lajoie.

Art of Stealing Bases.

"Stealing bases is not for the fact of stealing bases alone," said Fred Clarke in discussing the running end of baseball. "It is a double-headed ax that works for or against you two ways. The fast man who steals bases not only advances himself toward the plate, but he unsteadies an opposing pitcher more or less and often helps the man who follows him to a base on balls. Stealing bases may bring bases on balls, bad throws and other fortunate points to your side, but the attempt may waste a run for you and cost the game."

Demaree Wins Again.

Another thirteen-inning game was played in the Southern league, this one in Mobile, and it was won by the Gulls from Chattanooga, with Demaree pitching. In thirteen innings he allowed five hits. Chapelle pitched a good game for the Lookouts.

STORIES OF THE DIAMOND

Joe Kelly has been made captain of the St. Joseph team.

Kansas City has released Chick Brandon to New Orleans.

Joe McCarthy, Indianapolis' utility man, has been passed down to Wilkesbarre.

Catcher Higgins, former Chattanooga player, has been sent by Brooklyn to Toronto.

Arthur Devlin, the Boston Brave, plays first base as if he takes to the position naturally.

Catcher Al Shaw has again notified Manager Isbell that he does not intend to play ball this year.

Catcher Fitzpatrick, sent by St. Paul to Mansfield in the Ohio State league, balks on going.

Look for Fred Clarke to get back in the game with the Pirates if that losing streak isn't checked.

Connie Mack is sorely tried for pitchers. What of the many youngsters we heard so much about?

Jay Kirke of Boston surely is playing a great game. He is a speedy little player and can also swat that pill.

The Mid-Coast league, which has been "organizing" for six months, finally dropped its plans for this season.

In a game that lasted nearly three hours recently Kansas City and Milwaukee hurlers issued twenty passes.

Manager Frank Isbell twice in succession injected himself as a pinch hitter and in each case delivered a hit.

It might be a good thing for the other clubs if McGraw would give Bugs Raymond "just one more chance."

Seven home runs and three doubles recently were made in a U. S. league game. Sounds like poor pitching or a live ball.

At the rate postponements are piling up there won't be anything but double-headers during the latter part of the season.

With Red Dooin behind the bat, the Phillies seemed to recover their lost backbone, playing and hitting like real athletes.

Danny Claire, secured by Des Moines from Wichita, looks better in a Booster uniform than he did in that of the Hughes team.

Pittsburg fans are well pleased with their present line-up, but still keep on hinting that Fred Clarke should get back in the game.

The Cleveland Naps are surely short on baseball, but they have some long names, Hohnhorst, Birmingham, Blanding and then some.

Louis Bachant, secured by St. Joseph from Des Moines, is doing all the Drummer's backstopping while Gossett and Castle are laid up.

The freak game of the season to date was played by Jersey City and Toronto on May 9, when ten pitchers were used, six by Jersey City and four by Toronto. The Skeeters won by a score of 13 to 12, probably because they used more pitchers.

EDDIE FOSTER A STAR

His Work Has Been Beneficial to Washington.

Former Rochester Player Not Thought Good Enough for New York Giants Has Proven Tower of Strength for Griffith.

There are innumerable instances where good ball players have been let out by one major league club only to become stars for another after a little experience in a minor league. Eddie Foster is one of these. The question is often asked how Foster came to get away from New York. That club sent him to Rochester with the agreement that it would have the pick of the team in the fall. It is said that John Ganzel, the manager of that club, gave it as his opinion that Foster would not be of any help to his team, and he then consented to the sale of Foster to Washington, a deal which he undoubtedly has had reason to regret. Maurice Rath furnishes another instance of where a good ball player was allowed to slip through the hands of two major league clubs and is now making good for the White Sox with a vengeance. Philadelphia and Cleveland both had Rath, but he made good for neither because he was not played at the position where he belonged. They tried him at third and he failed, while he appears to be a wonderfully clever player at second.

What a wonderful difference the addition of one man can make in a ball team is proved in the case of Foster. While of course there have been many other changes in the make-up of the Nationals since last season, none of these appears to have been as beneficial to the team as the acquisition of Foster. He has filled a place where the team has always been weak and by his clever work at the bat has filled even a greater gap.

To Foster belongs the credit for most of the victories the Nationals have earned this spring. When he has not taken a part in the offensive end of the game he has prevented disaster by his remarkable fielding around third base. With a player less capable than he covering that position, it can be easily figured that three or four of the games which have been won would have been defeats.

On what he has shown this spring Foster is a remarkably clever ball player in every respect. One wonders that a man of his ability should have spent so long a time in the minor leagues. Few third basemen have shown themselves in the same class with the little fellow, nor does it seem reasonable to suppose that his showing has been a flash in the pan, for he is keeping up his good work at a consistent rate.

CLEVELAND FANS BECOMING DISSATISFIED

Manager Harry Davis.

Harry Davis, leader of the Naps, is having a hard time trying to figure out a winning combination, and if the Naps continue to show poorly, the "cry for Stovall" will surely be heard in Cleveland. At the beginning of the season Davis figured on a pennant, but his prize outfield, his crack infield, his wonderful pitching staff and his unbeatable catchers are not standing the gaff. One big drawback was the accident to Napoleon Lajoie.

Art of Stealing Bases.

"Stealing bases is not for the fact of stealing bases alone," said Fred Clarke in discussing the running end of baseball. "It is a double-headed ax that works for or against you two ways. The fast man who steals bases not only advances himself toward the plate, but he unsteadies an opposing pitcher more or less and often helps the man who follows him to a base on balls. Stealing bases may bring bases on balls, bad throws and other fortunate points to your side, but the attempt may waste a run for you and cost the game."

Demaree Wins Again.

Another thirteen-inning game was played in the Southern league, this one in Mobile, and it was won by the Gulls from Chattanooga, with Demaree pitching. In thirteen innings he allowed five hits. Chapelle pitched a good game for the Lookouts.

STORIES OF THE DIAMOND

Joe Kelly has been made captain of the St. Joseph team.

Kansas City has released Chick Brandon to New Orleans.

Joe McCarthy, Indianapolis' utility man, has been passed down to Wilkesbarre.

Catcher Higgins, former Chattanooga player, has been sent by Brooklyn to Toronto.

Arthur Devlin, the Boston Brave, plays first base as if he takes to the position naturally.

Catcher Al Shaw has again notified Manager Isbell that he does not intend to play ball this year.

Catcher Fitzpatrick, sent by St. Paul to Mansfield in the Ohio State league, balks on going.

Look for Fred Clarke to get back in the game with the Pirates if that losing streak isn't checked.

Connie Mack is sorely tried for pitchers. What of the many youngsters we heard so much about?

Jay Kirke of Boston surely is playing a great game. He is a speedy little player and can also swat that pill.

The Mid-Coast league, which has been "organizing" for six months, finally dropped its plans for this season.

In a game that lasted nearly three hours recently Kansas City and Milwaukee hurlers issued twenty passes.

Manager Frank Isbell twice in succession injected himself as a pinch hitter and in each case delivered a hit.

It might be a good thing for the other clubs if McGraw would give Bugs Raymond "just one more chance."

Seven home runs and three doubles recently were made in a U. S. league game. Sounds like poor pitching or a live ball.

At the rate postponements are piling up there won't be anything but double-headers during the latter part of the season.

With Red Dooin behind the bat, the Phillies seemed to recover their lost backbone, playing and hitting like real athletes.

Danny Claire, secured by Des Moines from Wichita, looks better in a Booster uniform than he did in that of the Hughes team.

Pittsburg fans are well pleased with their present line-up, but still keep on hinting that Fred Clarke should get back in the game.

The Cleveland Naps are surely short on baseball, but they have some long names, Hohnhorst, Birmingham, Blanding and then some.

Louis Bachant, secured by St. Joseph from Des Moines, is doing all the Drummer's backstopping while Gossett and Castle are laid up.

The freak game of the season to date was played by Jersey City and Toronto on May 9, when ten pitchers were used, six by Jersey City and four by Toronto. The Skeeters won by a score of 13 to 12, probably because they used more pitchers.

The fast Gem City Reserve team of Dayton, is scheduled for the Sunday afternoon game at the Athletic park on Columbus avenue.

The Naps On Their "Mettle"

Win Two Straight Games From New York Highlanders.

Cleveland, O., June 7.—Harry Davis' buccaneering crew of Naps made another old hoodoo walk the plank into the Sargossa sea of dismal defeat. The hoodoo of defeat was Russell Ford of the Highlanders, who for moons beyond number has been as one of the humblers-in-chief of the Cleveland team. In consequence of this piratical act Cleveland, for the second time in two days, won from New York, 8 to 3.
